

VIDHYA SAGAR WOMEN'S COLLEGE

(Affiliated to University of Madras)

Accredited at "A" Grade by NAAC

RESEARCH

The institution aims to become a centre for research in Commerce and few branches in Science in the near future. Presently, the Principal of the college is a recognized research supervisor and guide for Ph.D in Commerce, under the jurisdiction of the University of Madras. Under her Supervision and Guidance, 5 Part Time Research Scholars are pursuing their doctoral degree in Commerce currently and 2 part time research scholars have been conferred the doctoral degree.

Though a full-fledged research department is yet to be established, the faculties with the ardent support of the management have taken initiatives to promote the research culture to trigger the young minds into undertaking research with a noble thought and for a social cause.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Principal, a recognised supervisor and guide under the University jurisdiction.
- Research culture instigated through curriculum based projects.
- Proposed to undertake one major and two minor research projects of social
- Proposed to start an International Journal.
- Financial assistance and on duty provided by the Management to promote research among faculty.
- Internet facilities available to faculty and students